Frank Kennedy and George Davidson returned yesterday from the Big Hole country, where they have been on a fishing and hunting trip for several days. Mr. Kennedy surprised his friends by bringing home one grouse and one duck. He says he did not catch any trout as the streams over there are all fished out.

Dr. F. L. St. Jean left for Butte yesterday where he will be married this morning to Miss Nadeau at St. Patrick's church by Rev. P. De Siere. He and his bride intend to make a tour through Yellowstone park and will arrive in Anaconda about the 25th inst. to make their home. The doctor's father and two brothers of this city, Ludger, Wilfred and Eugene re-spectively, accompanied him to Butte yes-terday afternoon.

Mrs. French Sheldon, the famous author and African explorer, is arranging to come to Montana when she closes her exhibits of African curios at the world's fair. Mrs. of African curios at the world's tair. Are. Sheldon has been talking with Mrs. L. E. Howey and other citizens of Montana, and she says that she has arrived at the conclusion that the best field for original investigation and literary effort is in the history, manners and customs of the Indian tribes of the northwest.

At a mass meeting of organised labor, held Sept. 13th, it was unanimously voted to withhold all patronage from the Japanose; that they are as detrimental to domestic industry as the Chinese.

A NEW INDUSTRY. James W. Clark and Frank Hale Open

James W. Clark and Frank Hale open a Carriage Painting Shep.

James W. Clark and Frank Hale are meeting with splendid success in their new enterprise, that of carriage painting. Their shop, which is located at No. 119 West Front street, the first door west of the J. T. Carrell company's office, is already filled with fine carriages and delivery wagons belonging to prominent citisens of Anaconda, and they have received several more orders of a like character that will keep them busy for some time. Mr. Hale is a first-class carriage painter and sign writer, late of Salt Lake, where he lived for 15 years, and as Anaconda has been sorely in need of such an industry, the new firm will undoubtedly make a success of it. Two carriages from Salt Lake, finished by Mr. Hale, are now on exhibition at the world's fair and his artistic work carried off two prises, gold and silver medals, at the territorial fair held at Salt Lake last year. Jim fair held at Salt Lake last year. Jim Clark needs no introduction to Anaconda, as he has hundreds of friends in those parts who will believe him when he says all work turned out by the new firm will be guaranteed as first class.

To Members of the K. of L.

Some of the Knights of Labor are making a grand kick because the STANDARD states that George W. Howard and J. F. Hogan will speak in Masonic hall Thursday evening, Sept. 14, 1893, in the interest of the American Railway union. The kick is that nobody has the right to give up the hall, as it is the regular meeting night of the W. R. Morley assembly, and that no person had the authority to speak for the assembly in such matters. Now, I wish to say that it is distinctly understood by all parties interested in the mat-ter that the W. R. Morley assembly will hold its regular meeting and that the hall will only be used afterwards by and with their consent. And it is further under-stood that in case the W. R. Morley assembly will not allow the hall to be used for the purposes mentioned that the parties interested will go and occupy the Evans opera house and that the good work will go on just the same. I was one of the parties who stated to the committee arranging the meeting that I thought the W. R. Morley assembly would be glad to allow them to use their ball after they got through with it, and on that the committee made the announcement in the STANDARD this morning. There is no reason for any members of the K. of L. to stay away from their meeting, for nobody can or will take their hall without their consent nor until they are through with it. And further, as I understand it, the Knights of Labor are expected to attend the lecture. Respectfully,

H. H. MAYHEW. sembly will not allow the hall to be used

ANACONDA, Sept. 13.

Meeting of Railroaders To-Night. To-night at Masonic hall in Standard building an important and interesting meeting of railway employes will be held for the purpose of considering a proposition to reorganize the O. R. C., B. R. C. B. of L. E., B. of L. F., O. R. T., S. M. B A., and and all other branch unions and associations of railway employes into one organization under the American Railway organization under the American Railway union. G. A. Howard, the national organizer of the new union, and Mr. Hogan of the Union Pucific system, will address the meeting, showing the benefits to be deriued from one grand organization of all railway employes, and after talking over the situation a branch of the American Railway union will be inaugurated. Eugene V. Debbs, the great railroad reformer, may be present and may deliver an address.

THE ROYAL DISTRICT.

Viewers Appointed to Survey the Res From Deer Lodge to That Camp. On Thursday morning of this week the board of commissioners appointed Israel Gibbs. Peter Valiton and John Bieleuberg to view and report upon a route for a county road proposed in a petition presented by J. ... McMaster and others between Deer Lodge and the Royal gold mine—the viewers to meet in Deer Lodge on Wednesday, September 20.

Last year citizens of Deer Lodge subscribed a sufficient sum and had the most practicable route surveyed for this road; but the matter, aside from some agitation now and then, has rested until now. The

but the matter, aside from some agitation now and then, has rested until now. The viewers now appointed will go over the route laid out by the surveyors last year, estimate the probable cost, and report the same to the board. There will be no damages to assess, as everyone living along the proposed road is anxious to have it built and will relinquish all right as damages.

along the proposed road is anxious to have it built and will relinquish all right as damages.

We are glad this matter has been brought before the commissioners, and that they have seen fit to act upon it. The Royal district is a part of Deer Lodge county and is entitled to an outlet in some direction. The natural outlet and most direct route from that district is in the direction of Deer Lodge valley. A good road from that camp to Deer Lodge would benefit the people of the entire valley, as all of their supplies—grain, hay, provisions, etc.—would be drawn from us. They are favorable to Deer Lodge as their business point, and they prefer to contribute their money toward helping the industry of their own county. But if Deer Lodge county will not give them a road, they will seek an outlet in some other direction. The Royal camp is now attracting more attention than any camp in this section of the country, and we hope the viewers, after a careful survey of the route, will make a favorable recommendation to the commissioners.

Since the above was in type, through the efforts of Dr. A. H. Mitchell and other enterprising citizens of Deer Lodge, over $200 was subscribed for the purpose of sending a party over the proposed road and clearing the way of timber and other obstacles for the convenience of the viewers. A party of six men, thoroughly equipped, left Deer Lodge this morning to "blaze the trail."—New Northwest.

HELENA, Sept. 13.—The local land office to-day decided the contest of John L. Tam and John M. Storey, involving ground in Butte now covered by buildings and very Butte now covered by buildings and very valuable. Lucy Storey filed on a single tax lode mining claim and made a mineral entry in 1890. Tam and Cotter contended that she had not complied with the law in doing assessment work and making boundaries. They claim the ground was covered by single out and double out iodes owned by them. The land office finds the ground was originally covered by the Annie Laurie lode claim, on which the propor assessment work was done. Mrs.Storey bought out all the claimants to the Annie Laurie lode. The land officers dismiss the contest, which gives the land
